The sharing economy is become the new normal in many parts of Canada and the world. These economies and their associated insurance issues can follow you into your backyard, literally. Do you know what these online applications are and do you recognize the range of issues they may present to your participation in the insurance industry? Topics discussed will be:

- What is the sharing economy
- Airbnb: Host Guarantee and Host Protection
- Uber: What is it and are you insured?
- Cyber Insurance: common types and who needs it?

Who should attend?

This session will provide useful information for a range of industry professionals including brokers, underwriters and adjusters.

Speaker:

Tipper McEwan – Associate, Stewart McKelvey

Tipper is a lawyer with Stewart McKelvey in Halifax. He practices in the areas of insurance defence, commercial litigation, and real property litigation. His insurance defence practice covers all areas of claims and coverage and he has litigated cases at all levels of Court in Nova Scotia.

Coffee & Conversation seminars include breakfast snacks and refreshments.
